

Announcing the 2014 ATCA Award Winners

Thirty Individuals and Organizations

Honored for Contributions to Air Traffic Control

The Air Traffic Control Association (ATCA) is pleased to announce its 2014 Award Winners. The goal of ATCA's Award Program is to give special recognition to those persons and/or organizations engaged in the development, operation or maintenance of the world-wide air traffic control system for outstanding achievement.

The General E.R. Quesada Memorial Award

John Martin, Midwest Air Traffic Control Service, Inc.

The George W. Kriske Memorial Award

Bill Peacock, RVA

The William A. Parenteau Memorial Award

Michael Glasgow, Lockheed Martin

The Andy Pitas Memorial Award

Matt Sheffield, FAA Austin TRACON

Mark Schad, FAA St. Louis TRACON

Nunzio DiMillo, FAA BOS ATCT

Kristen Kewandowski, FAA Austin TRACON

The Earl F. Ward Memorial Award

Foxtrot Company, 7th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment, Task Force Wings, 159th Combat Aviation Brigade, U.S. Army

The ATCA Industrial Award

Tetra Tech AMT

The ATCA Small & Disadvantaged Business Award

CI² Aviation, Inc.

The Charles E. Varnell Memorial Award for Small Business

Architecture Technology Corporation (ATCorp)

The ATCA Air Traffic Control Specialist of the Year Award

Kevin Oswald, RVA

Glenn Hamilton, NAV CANADA FSS

Lingiam Odems Memorial Award for Air Traffic Control Specialist of the Military

SSgt Hugh Stout, U.S. Air Force

SSgt Roy Covington, U.S. Marine Corps

CW2 Shane Greenwood, U.S. Army

AC1 Jason Grabau, U.S. Navy

ATCA Airway Transportation Systems Specialist of the Year Award

ET2 Matthew Graham, U.S. Navy

ATCA Life Cycle Management Award

Patrick Bureau, NAV CANADA

The David J. Hurley Memorial Award for Aviation Traffic Management

Karen Walker, NAV CANADA

The Chairman's Citation of Merit Award

Fox Company, 1st Battalion, 52nd Aviation Regiment ("Arctic Foxes"), U.S. Army

SSgt Brian Eaton, U.S. Army

Joseph Dias, RVA

Walt Smith, ClancyJG International

MCO ATCT

The Glen A. Gilbert Memorial Award

Monte Belger, Metron Aviation

Join us Monday, September 29, 2014, during the ATCA 59th Annual Conference & Exposition's Awards Luncheon to recognize the exemplary work of these recipients.

Lunch is included with full conference registration; however, individual tickets are also available. To purchase tickets, email Paul Planzer, Manager, ATC Programs, or call 703-299-2430 x305.

For more information on the ATCA 59th Annual or Civil/Military Aviation Conference (CMAC), visit www.atca.org/59annual. To register now, visit www.atca.org/Register59.